

Illustration of the tripartite geometry we consider for a specific configuration of the dimer model. In this example, the graph is the square lattice, and  $A_1$ ,  $A_2$ , and  $B$  are tiled with green, blue, and gray dimers, respectively. The boundary dimers are those that cross the boundaries (dotted lines) of the subsystems.